“ Uncle was dear to us and left us a legacy of missions. He exemplified the Great commission is all the capacity God gave him. Uncle told us the last we met him that he is going to see our papa we lost a year ago. This brought us a great consolation. Our saintly fathers who truly feared God is passing away from this mortal world and has passed this responsibility to us to exercise in full capacity and Uncle’s passing has emboldened it further. Amen!
