“ My sincere condolence to the Woody Family. I'm very sorry for your loss. Kurt will definitely be missed... One thing that helps me cope or rely upon is God's infallible word. (Isaiah 25:8) reads: "He will actually swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken [it]. “ I was on line to view my own father's obituary when I looked at the list of names. I discovered that a classmate of mine from High School passed away. We had a large class, I did know Kurt by name, but not personally. I am very sorry for your loss. Far too young to leave...

“ I am very sorry to hear about Kurt's passing and I would like to offer my sympathy and condolences to Mr. Woody and the Woody family. Kurt was the first person to be-friend me when I was relocated to Detroit in 1995. He took me out showed me the town and took me to a Wings game. He also introduced me to the game of Golf (although I am never sure if that was a good or a bad thing). I will never forget the hospitality he showed me then. As a result. we struck up an enduring friendship from then on. He was great guy who loved life and lived it to its fullest. There was only one Woodman. The world was a better place when he was in it and is a little less of a place now that he is gone. I am sddened by the fact that I cannot be there to pay my last respects to Kurt as I have taken a job in Wyoming but I wanted to at least let the Woody family know that Kurt touched many people in ways that I am sure he never knew - and I am one. I will miss him.

Sincerely,

Joe Spiegel

“ To all of the Woody family our deepest condolences for your great loss. Kurt and I worked together at Line Precision Inc. for the past several years and I became very good friends with Kurt he was a good individual who would bend over backwards to help you in time of need. The world will be a little less friendly now that he is no longer among us.
