“ I met Kyler in highschool at tinkham. Which might not seem big to some but changed my young life but Kyler introduced me to a video game by the name call of duty black ops then leading into black ops 2 kylers love for the games rubbed of on me. I went onto join a few professional call of duty teams. I wouldn't have done any of that if it wasn't for him showing me the games and teaching me to play I give it all to him. Kyler was a great guy we went to a few local concerts back in 2013 Everytime I load up call of duty I think of my old friend dr double cup I miss you Kyler

“ I cannot begin to express, how badly this hurts. Kyler was a wonderful kid! He was kind, thoughtful and fun. I'm so glad I was fortunate enough, to be in his life and celebrate the kind soul, he was blessed with...He brought happiness to my life that cannot be measured. I love you Kyler and will always miss you. You know I'll always be a part of Nevaeh's "Village". We'll watch over her and be her strength, but you will always be her light. Until we meet again Buddy... Love, Gingy - XO

“ Kyler when i said you were family i meant it and you will ALWAYS be one of the biggest parts of our lives. My niece will know how generous and true her daddy was and that you are looking over her every single day. I am trying to hold it together but we will miss you always and life will never be the same. I promise to be as generous/caring/loyal/giving as you were so that my niece will know in every good thing she does you are so proud of her. Give my sweetheart the biggest hug for me i know you two are friends and please look out for my sister and thank you for loving her so much please continue to watch over her and remind her of that i know you will. 💔💔💔

“*Kyler,
The day you were born was the greatest gift ! I always loved being your grandma .
I have so many great memories of the trips we took, the fun things we did that I treasure.
I miss you every minute and life will never be the same. Love, GMA*
