“ Oh my darling husband its so hard to believe it will be 5 years this June that you went to Heaven. Every day the pain gets worse. I know you would not be happy with things that have been going on but I told you long ago people change when there's a death, their true colors come out. But some wonderful things have been happening. We have another grandchild that got married, we have another great grandchild and one on the way. Also we have another granddaughter getting married in October. I hope you are looking down and smiling at these special moments. I love you always and forever.

It's been two weeks and I still wait for you to walk through the door. My heart aches more then I ever thought possible, I still ask why and still don't get a answer. I just don't understand what happened. I love you forever.
