“ My sincere condolences to Carol and all of Larry's family. I have 62 years of memories of Larry. From when were just kids till now. Some are our first real jobs at Wrigley in 1963. Then our first cars we both bought 1957 Fords. In 1964 we got our first new cars, him first and me later that year 1964 and 1965 chevelles. Then in 1965 we started at FoMoCo a few weeks apart, oh yeah and we both got married that year. Many wonderful memories of snowmobiles, going on golf vacations, bowling in men's leagues and mixed leagues for many years. Also the many motorcycle rides we took. Just sitting on the upper deck of a cruise ship having a beer and talking. I'm going to miss you old friend. Doug

“ Carol and family. Larry will be deeply missed by your Canadian friends Wayne and Dawn. We looked forward to spending time with you both on our vacations to Ocean East. I am saddened that we have not been able to go during the pandemic and hurricanes. We loved our time chatting, laughing during bingo and enjoying our weekly lunch with you both. Forever in our hearts. xox Dawn and Wayne Davidson
