“ I will always remember Laura when her grandpa, Ed brought her to Babcia's in Detroit when he would come visit his mother. Such a pretty you girl and so full of life. When she was older with children of her own, I would get to see her at her mother's and nice to see her. Shirley had amazing kids and always nice to see them. I hope to see all of them and their families at the Kopacz annual picnic at Camp Dearborn from not one to keep Laura in my heart and enjoy her family. Love you all, Kathleen

“ I want to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one and I hope the following suggestions help the family members and those who loved Laura J. Knoerl to lessen their grief.

- Talk about your feelings to “a true companion” who will listen patiently and sympathetically.
- If you have feelings of guilt thinking that some neglect on your part contributed to your loved one’s death, realize, though, that no matter how much we love another person, we cannot prevent “time and unforeseen occurrence from befalling those we love.

(Ecclesiastes 9:11)

More than anything else, a relationship with God can help you to cope with the death of someone you love. Isaiah 33:24 promises the time when an end to sickness will become a reality. God will put an end to pain, suffering and even DEATH. God promises at Isaiah 25:8 that death will be swallowed up forever.
