“ My heart goes out to the Family of: Laura J. Shearer. I'm truly sorry for your loss.... One thing that helps me to deal or cope with losing someone I love is the Bible. At (1Corinthians 15:26) reads: "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing. see our official website at www.jw.org

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family and friends of our cousin Laura. She will be missed by all of those lives that she has touched and will live forever in our hearts and memories. We find some comfort in knowing that she is with God and without pain. God Bless from the Whatley family in Las Vegas.

“ To the family and friends of Laura Shearer. I would like to send my condolences to each of you. Although we are not acquainted with one another we have all experienced the loss of a loved one to the enemy death. Our Heavenly Father feels the pain that you are going through. He does, however, hold out a promise that one day soon He will wipe every tear of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:3-5) He also promises that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear His voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until those words are fulfilled may you each find comfort in God and in His promises.

“ I can't express how lucky I feel to have had Laura for my friend and "adopted sister". She was truly one of the most gentle, kind, loving and giving people to grace this earth. Laura was such a good listener and was always there to share both my joys and sorrows!! I will treasure the memories of our exercise workouts, the laughs and tears we shared, the games of euchre and our evenings of dinner and a movie. The "three amigos" (Laura, Joy and me) outings like shopping, walking in the wetlands and just bumming around are memories I will treasure forever. Laura was always willing to help in any way she could like during my shoulder surgery. I consider it a privilege to have been able to be there for Laura and her family in their time of need as she was there for me in mine. May Laura's entire family find God's peace and joy in all the wonderful memories Laura has left each of you. May God wrap each of you in his love and bring you peace! Much Love, Bonnie
