“ Dad was always very thoughtful when it came to me. I remember he bought me a new wave oven because he said I work so hard all day he didn't want me to have to work hard in the kitchen too. I have learned a lot from him over the years . I'm so glad I was here to help and take care of you these last few years. No one will miss you more than I . So glad you did not suffer. Rest in peace.

“ I met my grandfather, Laurence, once in the summer of 1983. My twin sisiter, Belle and I were 14 years old and my parents (Nancy and Richard) were driving us home from our cross country vacation and decided to drop in on him. It was a huge moment in my life to finally meet my only grandfather. I just wish I had gotten to know him better. My mom has told us kids the many tales of her dad, Laurence, with fond memories. May he rest in peace. With love from San Antonio, TX, Bella (grandaughter)

“ I had the honor of meeting my grandfather on his 90th birthday and he left a very good impression on our family. My kids were able to say they once met their Grate Grandfather as well. The Diehl family will continue in the Maryland-Pennsylvania area with cherished memories of Larry and our prayers go out to the family in Michigan.
