“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com

Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ Laurie's smile, sense of humor and laughter will live forever with anyone that was blessed to get to know her. She is singing and smiling right now...the strongest and most determined woman I've ever met. Prayers to the family and friends at this sad time.

“ We are so very sorry for your loss. It was really nice to spend time with her when she would come to Bible study. I always thought it was so beautiful when she would volunteer to pray for the group. I also enjoyed hearing her sing along with the congregation during worship. Janet, we are praying for all of you. May you truly feel God's comforting presence. Laura and Rob Simpson

“ I will forever miss you my friend. Your courage and fearlessness when needed will long be remembered. Some of my favorite memories include riding the DC Metro at Rush Hour and trying to see you in the wall of humanity as well as eating at a restaurant with an extension cord attached to your wheelchair and the outlet in the bathroom so we could have enough power to make it back to the hotel. I will miss our frequent phone conversations and meals at Bob Evans.
