“ Larry Sexton, my wonderful, charming, funny, reliable, gifted lector partner has gone to his eternal rest. I was very blessed to serve with Larry as a lector for 9 years. He was an inspiration, not only to me, but to all the parishioners of St. Theodore. But his loving dedication to his ministry was truly a gift. In one way or another, throughout his 92 years, Larry served others. With that much momentum, I'm sure he'll continue in heaven. Larry was very intelligent, an interesting conversationalist and he always had a twinkle in his eye, and a smile on his face that revealed an eager readiness to laugh at a good joke. Yet, when his beloved wife, Marian, became ill this past year, I saw that spark flicker and grow dimmer. He was a very proud husband and father. When he talked about his family, his face shined. He loved playing golf. Deacon Jim can tell you how good he was. I always used to tease him that he would make a hole in one the next time he played. He had a great sense of humor. Those of us who were fortunate enough to know him, will, I'm sure, miss him. We all lost a great friend. But God has a loyal and faithful child back in his arms in heaven. God rest his soul.

“ I write to do what the Bible say at Romans 12:15 to weep with those who are weeping. Jesus the greatest man who ever lived the earth did that when his friend Lazarus died. The comforting thought is that God has promised to bring death to nothing and all the dead will come back to life and will be able to see Sexon and all our loved ones. This promise is recorded in the bible at John 5:28-29 and Isaiah 26:19. I encourage you to read the scriptures with your family using your copy of the Bible Sincerely

“ Dear Regis: You, and only you, know what deep sorry is at this moment. If your Dad was anything like you I am sure we would love to have known him. You were lucky to have him and enjoy him for a nice long life. It would be great if we had a special way in which to help you with sorry right now but you are in our prayers.
