“ Leroy was always a great family-friend. He had a huge heart, and a special way about him. He was such a character, and you don't meet many characters much these days, not like Leroy, that's for sure. I can still see him sitting in my parent's kitchen laughing and having a beer, playing cards; or outside in the summer enjoying my dad's teasing and crazy humor; or up north snowmobiling and have a good old time. I pray Leroy is at peace now, and surrounded by God's love and the loving souls who have gone on before him. Gone too soon, Leroy....you're gone too soon. Love to you and your family, Cindy, Dave and Samantha

“ Patsy and I are deeply sorry over Leroy's passing. What a dear man. He was a special part of our lives since 1996 when he worked on the construction of our home in Northville with Rick. Later he worked on our cottage on Half Moon Lake. He always had a big smile and a hearty laugh. My wife used to sing out (loudly) when she saw him, Bad Bad Leroy Brown, Badest Man in the Whole Damm Town. He always laughed and got a kick out of it. We shall miss him!

Although I did not know them well, I always thought Lynda and Lee were the best looking couple in our class of 1967. I admired greatly and respected their 53 year marriage. Love and prayers to Lynda and Rest In Peace you handsome devil!!!

“ I worked on different job sites with Leeroy and he was always top notch. He always had something kind to say and would talk about his family. I remember on several occasions if he knew I was working on his job the following day he would pack an extra large lunch to share with me, and even though I would decline there would be an extra sandwich that had my name on it. Leeroy was what I Considered a “Good ole boy” and they definitely don’t make them anymore. My Condolences to his Family, he left a footprint.
