

Leo Elwood Dietz

January 6, 1927 - February 8, 2012

Dietz, Leo E., age 85 of Plymouth, February 8, 2012. Loving Husband to the Late Rita Dietz Beloved Father of Brian (Marion) Dietz, and Ashleigh (John) Cox. Proud Grandfather of Alexa, Zane, Andrew and the late Renee Dietz. Dear Beloved Brother of Lawrence Dietz. Interment of Cremains will be held in the spring at Fort Custer National Cemetery. Leo Dietz was born on January 6th, 1927 in Hamtramack, Michigan to Lawrence and Bertha Dietz. He graduated from Henry Ford Trade School, and became a die maker. He served in the United States Army during WWII, as a rifleman and medic. He made it home safely, but was shot accidentally by a careless neighbor, and blinded in one eye. He did not let this stop him from living a full life. He was an excellent die maker, and worked hard, often seven days a week. In 1949 he married Rita Herron, and they had three children. He was devoted to his family and friends, and enjoyed ballroom dancing, collecting antiques, reading, and buying new cars. He was a quiet man, but he spoke with wisdom, and had a great sense of humor. He passed away peacefully on February 8th, 2012. He will be remembered for his devotion, his generosity, and the twinkle in his eye. Leo confessed Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior, and awaits His return. “ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!
