“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Leon will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Leon again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Leon seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Uncle Leon always enjoyed life - and I have so many memories of just that ... his love and happiness with his family, his enthusiasm and fun at family picnics and holidays, his all-out love of good food! No matter the occasion, Uncle Leon would make it fun. I'm glad he was with us for so many years, and will cherish the warm memories. I hope they will somehow balance the sorrow of his passing for Aunt Marion, Bob & Bernie, and Bill & Karen. Love, Toni
