“ He was a wonderful man, and will be sorely missed. I loved listening to his wonderful stories of "back in the day," and his zany sense of humor. I have many old photos of him: some make me cry, some make me blush, some make me laugh. ALL of them are priceless. God Bless.

“ Sending my deepest sympathy to your family. We met Mr. Leonard through church. My kids, Emily and Joey, were spoiled by him and given so much love. He was a very special man to all of us and will be missed tremendously. He had a heart of gold! I am very sorry we are unable to attend the services - Emily has a severe viral infection and has been off school all week. Please know that he was loved by us and I know my kids will have an extra guardian angel to watch over them.
My thoughts and prayers are with you,
Karen Hunt xo

“ I have many fond childhood memories of visiting Uncle Lenny's and Aunt Anne's. The kielbasa cooking while the Uncles would be enjoying a cold Stroh's!

Like Uncle Lenny I love czarnina, something I rarely got, even less after my Dad died because he was the one to go to the market. So after my Dad died, if Uncle Lenny went to the live poultry market he always remembered to pick up an extra duck for my Mom so she could make me some wonderful Czarnina, with kluski noodles of course!

Uncle Lenny and Aunt Anne were also my Godparents. I remember sitting on Uncle Lenny's lap when I was 7 years old, talking to him because I was so worried about going to Confession for the first time - Not because I had done something horribly wrong but because I couldn't figure out what to say! But I wasn't going to make up any of the things Uncle Lenny was teasing about for fear they may be "mortal" sins! Everyone laughed, probably at me, nonetheless he made me feel better.

Uncle Lenny always made me feel special. He also was so kind to my little Katie (who is not little anymore) remembering to send her cards on special occasion and tucking a couple bucks in it, something that wins the hearts of all kids.

I will forever remember and love you Uncle Lenny. May God Bless you and keep you.

Love, Karen

“ In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. Dad, you were faithful to the end. Your place has been prepared for you. All my love.
