“ Dear Pat and Family, our sincerest sympathy to all of you. Pat, no doubt you probably won't remember us by this e-mail so I'll stop by and see you at SJN church sometime real soon. We have a few commonalities, Liz at Genesis does our hair (we've been there at the same time in the past). Len used to umpire (and a fair one at that, as you know, which went along with his patient, kind, and gentle nature) my womens' softball games back in the 80's through the mid-90's. Pat, back in the good ole days when you part of the Pastoral Ministry team with Fr. Geo Charnley, we used to come to the New Year's Eve parties, and one year when we had our new security system installed at our other house, it malfunctioned and you & Len were so understanding you let us use your office phone to call home (this was before the cell phone boom) and appease our frantic babysitter and young daughter. We pray for you and your family that you can gain strength from the many memories Len has left for you to carry on. God Bless you all, The Price's (Kevin, Mary and Stephanie, who is finishing her first year in Ann Arbor at The University of Michigan)

“ Sorry to hear about Mr. Bloch's passing. He was my 11th grade english teacher at Fordson High in Dearborn back in the fall of 1981. A very nice, kind and patient man and a wonderful teacher!

“ I met Len at the FARSP meetings a short time ago, and I found him to be a genuinely nice man. Len was always gracious and unassuming and he dealt with people in a manner which put them at ease. He will be missed greatly.

“ Len and Pat moved next door to us 28 years ago. No one can ask for a better neighbor than Len. He will be greatly missed. Our prayers are with you and your family.
