“ Dear family of Mr. Place, I am truly saddened by your great loss. It seems as if 70 years is just not enough time to spend with the ones you truly love. This is because our Creator Jehovah God. Made us to live forever with no thought of ever dying. The Bible promises us: "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Just imagine how wonderful life will be when we are reunited with our loved one right here on a paradise earth.-Psalms 37:10,11,29

“ Martha I wanted to extend my condolence in the loss of your husband Virgil. For those who have not had the experience, it is impossible to understand the depth of the pain caused by the loss of a mate. In fact, the human mind only gradually accepts the terrible reality. In such a situation, one needs encouragement, consideration, and love. Reassuringly, the psalmist David sang: “Jehovah is giving support to all who are falling, and is raising up all who are bowed down.” (Ps. 145:14) The Bible tells us that “[Jehovah’s] eyes are roving about through all the earth to show his strength in behalf of those whose heart is complete toward him.” (2 Chron. 16:9) He is “with the one crushed and lowly in spirit, to revive the spirit of the lowly ones and to revive the heart of the ones being crushed.” (Isa. 57:15) You may come across the thought, “Is there any hope of seeing Leroy again?” Well the answer is “Yes”. Jesus promised that most people in the memorial tombs will...come out.” (John 5:28, 29) This promise future includes perfect health and everlasting life. “ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Leroy will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Leroy again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort. (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)
