“ I'm deeply saddened by the loss of Lee. I know there are no words to ease your pain. Just know that with the passing of time, the pain will ease. You'll always miss your dad, son, husband, but the pain will become more bearable. I wish I could've been there for the memorial service. My thoughts and prayers are with you. Love, Pam

“ Words can't express the sadness we've felt this week. We're sad we lost Lee when he was so young. We're also sad that, although we were cousins, we didn't get the opportunity to really know each other. Our heart and prayers go out to all of you who are our family who knew and loved Lee and are feeling such a great loss. To Uncle Leroy, we love you and are thinking of you and praying for you.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Leroy will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Leroy again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Leroy seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ I was so sad to hear of Lee's death. We shared part of our childhood together. When I met him as a young adult I was very impressed with how fun and upbeat he was, I'm sure he will be terribly missed. I shed many tears upon hearing the news. He was too young,. though I'm sure heaven is a very welcoming place for him. My condolences go out to his immediate family during this time of extreme loss. Sincerely, Julie Gersabeck McIntosh

“ To Lee's Family, To you all, to Brandon and Brittany, especially to you Gail, I am so sorry. I have such fond memories of Lee during the years we were a part of your life. He was a friend and brother to me. We had so many fun times together. He was a special person who was so warm, friendly and funny. Our relationship was so sweet and innocent, a true friendship because he was safely my brother, even though we were the same age. Please feel my love prayers and hugs! Please feel free to call me at 650 576 8795. I look forward to having Lee greet me in heaven someday! Love, Leslie
