“ All of my memories of Linda revolve around Casey and Kerith. From the time she welcomed Kerith into their Michigan world (while Casey finished his residency in San Diego), assisted in the complicated orchestration of Casey's marriage proposal (involving a U-Haul truck and an apron), made Kerith's beautiful wedding dress, kept me posted from Cincinnati during Hugh's birth, and joined me to welcome Frances into the world, I couldn't have asked for a more caring mother-in-law for my daughter or Amma for our grandchildren.
