“ Dear John and Stacy,

Debbie Price called me yesterday with the news. I am so very saddened to hear of Linda's untimely passing. I ran into Linda a few months before Stacy's wedding and we tried to get the old bowling team together for dinner but never did. Linda and I were exactly the same age and she was so part of our lives when we adopted Samantha from Brazil. That was 18 yrs. ago next month. I know that was so special for her because we had waited a lifetime for our only child and having Stacy, even though she was such a difficult birth, was the most wonderful thing in her life. I also know that you, John, were the love of her life.

I only got the call from Debbie as a message, we were on our way home from Thanksgiving in Richmond, VA with Mark's family. I don't know what caused Linda's untimely passing but I know she was a special person who was loving and caring and she will be missed. I know this is a devastating loss for you and you are in my thoughts and prayers. Please accept my deepest condolences.

Sincerely,

Susan Weisbrod

“ John,

It has been a while since we last spoke. I am very sorry to see that your blessed wife has passed away. I can see from some of the other condolences, she was a woman of faith. Praise God for that. May God bless you and your family during these difficult days. May you continue to rest on Him daily.

“ Dear Family:

Hello:

I was sorry to read about the death of your loved one. I know how it hurts when a loved one dies, and my heart goes out to you in sympathy.

I have been comforted with the Bibles promises of those who are now asleep in death will wake up when God's son, Jesus Christ will use his power in the near future. The scripture at John 5:28, 29 records this promise:

“Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”

The Bibles' promise has aided many to cope during these stressful times and to have the confidence in the Bible based hope of a Paradise earth ...where death would be no more.”

{Revelation 21:3-5}

With much respect,

“ John,

Eileen and I were truly saddened to read of Linda's passing. Even though it has been many years we still remember her great warm smile. Eileen particularly remembers the enjoyable time when she first got to know Linda at the end of Clinac 18 school so long ago.

Our sincerest condolences on your and Stacy's loss. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ John

The e-mail you sent informing us of Linda's passing was a shock. When I think back at all the conversations we had and how you were always caring for her, if not getting sacks full of medicines, to making dinners you took care of her and loved her. You provided an example of what it is to truly love someone "through thick and thin". I remember you telling me of the great pain that she had to endure with this illness and from the latest fall. She is at peace now, the pain is gone, and you did everything you could by caring for her the way that you did. The next few days will be filled with hard times, but family and friends will be there to lean on, use them. The days will get brighter (even though we are in Michigan), and it will get easier. Keep the memories of the great vacations, and the fun times you had together as a family, and let the other things go. You and Stacy have our deepest condolences, and will remain in our prayers throughout this time of hardship.

“ *John & Stacy,
I am so deeply sorry for your loss. I have known Linda and worked with her for over 2 years now. I sat right near her every day at work. Our desks were very close. I have never met someone as unique and wonderful as Linda. She always had a kind word for everyone. Even if she wasn't feeling well herself, she always thought of others. I had the honor of praying with Linda on more than one occasion. I will continue to lift up your family in prayer. Linda had a soft spot in her heart for my 2 young sons & always asked me how they were, or what they had done over the weekend. She was truly a friend and I will miss her kind heart & gentle spirit. I am blessed to have known her. I will think of her often.*
