“ I had the pleasure of taking care of Linda for a few years and i got to know Linda and her family and they became my family as well. I admired the love i saw in that family. There kindness towards one another just made me realize that that’s exactly how i want to raise my children. Her husband Dick is one of the most loyal big hearted guy i have ever met. He visited her every day and the way he cared about Linda and always making sure Linda was taken care of was just the romantic type love that we all desire to have a happy long marriage. Her family stood by her side till the very end and i know that Linda appreciated that. I will never forget the happy face Linda had when i would say honey your kids are coming to visit you today. Linda loved telling me stories about traveling with her husband and her sister and children and how they used to pack the kids sandwiches and they could go to the park even and just have an amazing time. She taught me the importance of family and how important it is to enjoy life while we can and while we are healthy. I will forever remember her and i will miss her from the bottom of my heart.

“ Aunt Linda was really cool. I would win a bottle of wine each year when I worked at Bavarian Inn and I would take it up to the Farm during the reunion. Aunt Linda and I would sit and enjoy the whole bottle. Good thing it was just once a year. Love you and I will miss you. R.I.P. Aunt Linda 💖💖💖
