“ I am a minister of Jehovah's Witnesses me and my wife would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your love one. We would like to leave you with a word of encouragement from Gods word the bible. Job 14:14 said If a man die, shall he live again? The bible makes the promise: Your dead ones will live... They will rise up. The bible also says: The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19 and Psalm 37:29. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctk sdk@yahoo.com Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ At Acts 24:15, it says: "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Is it not comforting to know that our dead love ones will live again. I hope this scripture brings you lasting comfort at this mournful time.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Linn's family and her work family. We have all been saddened by her passing. She has been a good friend and I will miss sharing a story, and talking about Up North, golf, Sadie, on many occasions. Those simple moments I will miss the most.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to Ken and the rest of Linn's family and friends. She was a wonderful lady and will be sorely missed. I remember when she returned to MEAA, not long after I was hired. It didn't take long to see why everyone was so happy to see her return! She was smart, knowledgeable and always displayed considerable patience and humor. She always had a hilarious story of Sadie's (or Pokey's) latest mishap to tell. I will miss hearing the rest of them.

“ My wife, Dawn, and I are both deeply saddened by Linn's passing. I have known Linn for most of my 30 yrs with Mitsubishi and we considered her as much a friend as coworker. Linn was always kind hearted and would often ask about my family. There are many fond memories, especially back in the days when we golfed together on the Mitsubishi league. We will miss you Linn. Rest in Peace.

“ Linn was one of the best people I knew. She just had a way with others that made them feel amazing. She helped me with so many things both work and personal related. She was like my person - if I ever had a problem or wanted to tell someone something she was the first one I went to. I want to shine my light on others the way she shined her bright light on me.

“ Dear co-worker and neighbor - I have to admit when we first started working together Linn intimidated me with all of her knowledge, but we became partners in pricing and I always appreciated her help. We frequently talked about the ducks crossing over John Hix by the pond and of course our dogs. Every morning when I drive by the pond and see the ducks I smile and think of Linn. My prayers to your family. You are missed!

“ I will always look up to Linn for her most admirable traits. Always so kind and good-natured. She fixed my mistakes at work and never even told me I made those mistakes! That's the kind of person I want to be and I am so grateful I had the experience to work with her to make my life more rich and to set an example for me.

“ This is how I describe Linn:
L - Loving & laughing
I - Invaluable in creating family traditions and memories
N - Never selfish, never rude
N - Naturally beautiful
I am fortunate that Linn defined family as, “anyone who walks through the door.” Her absence on this earth leaves a giant void that won’t be filled until we see her again in eternity. I am praying for strength and comfort and the ability to find peace for Kenny and Sadie, and for the countless people Linn considered “family.”

“ Linn was a gentle and kindhearted soul who was always generous with her time and love. My family will always cherish her caring hospitality and we will miss her oh so much come Arcadia Daze. I cling to the promise that there is a place in Heaven already prepared for a woman such as her. May we all be comforted by the hope that we shall meet again in a better place where “there will be no more death or sorrow or crying or pain”. Rest in Peace Linn, we love you.

“ Linn was truly one of a kind. The most thoughtful person i have ever had the pleasure of knowing. Up in Arcadia every summer we would be the last at the campfire late at night and i would say, Well i wont keep you up any later Linn, and she would say, no, i love staying up at the fire and please stay a while. I will miss our great conversations through the years for the rest of my life. Rest in Peace Linn and God Bless You and thanks for a great friendship

“ Linn was the most generous and nicest person I think I know. She and my cousin Kenny hosted many many family and friends up in Arcadia every year. Linn will be sadly missed by all of us. She was always so good to my children as they grew up as well as my nieces and nephews as they grew up and as they all became adults and had children of their own. GOD has a special place for Linn I know. She really was one in a billion. Love you Linn and Kenny
