

Lisa McMaster

May 19, 2013

McMaster, Lisa "Love you Lisa," age 8, of Canton, Michigan, started her new journey after a 5 year fight to BLAST cancer. Our Princess Warrior loved and is loved by her parents, Michael and Linda, and her siblings Maranda, Thomas and Christina. Hundreds of family members and thousands of friends will remember her and wish her well on her new journey. Lisa was an amazing ambassador for the awareness of childhood cancer, a fight we will continue to wage in her honor. Visitation Tuesday 2-9 PM at Vermeulen Funeral Home, 46401 West Ann Arbor Road (between Sheldon and Beck) Plymouth. Funeral Mass Wednesday 10 AM at St. John Neumann Church, 44800 Warren Road (west of Sheldon) Canton. In State at church Wednesday 9 AM until the 10 AM funeral mass. Those who wish to support the ongoing fight against childhood cancer can send donations to: University of Michigan, In Memory of Lisa McMaster, or Blast, 1000 Oakbrook, Suite 100, Ann Arbor MI 48104, Attn: Kim. To share a memory, please use the view and send condolences tab on this web page.

“ My sympathy to all of you. Lisa will be missed and remembered fondly. She had the most beautiful eyes and looked great in hats! Peace to all!

“ *Dear Linda and Family:
I was so terribly saddened to receive the news of Lisa's passing. Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family and may you find comfort in knowing that Lisa is at peace in her eternal life with the Lord. A priest once told me that God picks people like flowers - when they are the most beautiful - to be with Him. She is your angel and will forever be with you!*

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Lisa and all of the McMaster Family. Lisa was a real fighter and was so blessed to have such loving and caring parents and siblings. We are all better off for knowing the wonderful spirit she portrayed. Blessings to all of you always. Phyllis Kownacki, Teacher for Students with Autism Central Middle School

“ You will all be in our thoughts! You have shown what being great parents truly means. I will miss Lisa's smiling face and the introduction of her doll of the day. I feel honored that she named one of her dolls Mrs. McCann!

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Lisa will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Lisa again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ Michael, Linda, Maranda, Tommy and Christina. Our heart filled condolences to each of you. Lisa was a special young lady who showed that with persistence and love anything is possible, no matter the challenges. May her soul be blessed by her fellow angels, Grandma Mac and Grandpa Bernie. Hugs and love to you all.

“ Farewell to a young brave warrior! I'll miss seeing you in the halls cuddling your dolls and negotiating with Mrs. Mattson and Ms. Ava about your assignments. May God bless your family/friends for their dedication, support and love they expressed over the years! Farewell!

“ Mr. and Mrs. McMaster,
I want to take this opportunity to show my respect for the manner in which you dealt with this trial. You never gave up, you fought the battle along with Lisa until the end. You were always so cheerful as you checked her into the office for the morning. I marveled at your composure when you talked about her prognosis. Your faith was an inspiration to me.

Lisa was a trooper who took each day with a smile and determination to enjoy life. I will always remember that smile as she clutched her doll. I could see her outside of my office when she was working with Ava in the Smokey Mountain Area. She was happy.

I pray that God will grant you and her siblings, Tommy, Miranda and Christina the PEACE that passes all understanding. You were awesome parents but now she is in the hands of the Supreme Parent and I bet she is smiling.

Love,
Carolyn

“ *I am so sorry for your loss. The struggles you went through is unemanagable. I just wish I could be there for you to give each and everyone a hug and time to sit and listen to your memories. My prayers have always been with everyone. I will continue to pray for you. I heard this pray and adjusted it: Grief consumes us,
The emotions betray us,
Somehow Lord,
Let us rest in your promise,
Your promise that Lisa is safe in Your arms,
Safe in heaven where there are no tears and no pain,
Only joy & peace & love,
Lord please be with Linda and Michael & their family,
Walk with them in their grief,
Hold them up when they falter,
Sustain them when they feel like giving up.
Amen. My love is with you always--Arlene Seppanen*
