“ The last time my husband and I had spoken to aunt lois was a couple of years ago and unfortunately we lost touch. He had no idea she passed until I found her obituary last nite. He loved her and we are so very very sorry for your loss.

“ I worked with Lois at John Glenn. Being a class sponsor for many years, I had the opportunity to drop off prom ticket or concession money to her. She was a fantastic lady!

One year, I was her secret Santa. That is how I discovered her love for a Snickers bar at the end of each school day! Lois shared her love for the Lillian Jackson Braun's Cat Who.... books. (I now have the entire collection and often reread them.) She also shared PBS videos with me. We both liked the period pieces especially if a mystery was involved.

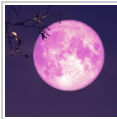

I just want you to know that your Mom was a lovely, kind and intelligent lady. I am so glad I got to know her. I only wish I could have told her that in person.

I am able to recall a lifetime of events with Lois Brown-Combs. She was in and around my life for 62 years. She was the mother that Drove Gail, Jeff and me to the Algiers Drive-In, Drove me to Metro Airport to see Gail leave for Europe, sent me a high school graduation card with $25.00, Drove Shari over to my home to baby-sit my daughter, exchanged Christmas and Easter Cards for decades, and within the last decade, we took a genealogy class at the local college. The difference was this time I Drove.

The memories of Lois are abundant and when I remember her I will always smile.

I was lucky she was in my life. Rest in Peace
