“ Suzy, Mary, Mike and John,

First let me say how very sorry I am for your loss. Your mom has joined your dad and that must bring you some peace. How blessed you all were to be children of such a wonderful loving couple. Though I must say what comes to my mind first is your devotion and commitment to your parents in their final years. I have never seen children give so much of themselves without ever complaining or expecting praise. Your parents raised you well and I'm sure they were very proud of you. Your memories will last in your heart forever and you can always know that your love for both your mom and dad was exceptional. Our deepest sympathy on the loss of your dear mom. Ann and Pat Drake
