“ I will always be thankful for Lois, who was my Spiritual Mother. When I was a young adult she pointed me to true Christian living through years of Sunday School classes under her. She led our ladies vocal group which I loved. She put special notes on my music sheet for my part in the harmony. I took piano lessons from her for a short while. I had no talent for piano, but she didn't tell me that. She taught me how to cord so I felt like I was accomplishing something.

She was my example of a Christian leader. My relationship with the Lord would never be where it is today if it weren't for her leadership.

My condolences to Chuck, Alice, Gail and their families.

I love you Lois. I thank my God upon every remembrance of you.

“ The entire MEDICAL TEAM HOSPICE was honored to have the opportunity to walk along side of Lois on this journey.

We are blessed to have known Lois. Remembering her wonderful and gentle soul will remain in our hearts. Our special thoughts and heartfelt prayers are with you and your family during this time of sorrow.

These are just a few of the sentiments expressed:

“We all feel this death deeply”

She was a remarkable, humble and godly woman. I think we could all say that we saw this verse from Isaiah lived out; “You will keep in perfect peace him whose mind is steadfast, because he trusts in You.”

“It was a joy to care for her”

“Lois made a lasting and positive difference in our lives”

We want you to know that we are just a phone call away if there is anything we can do to help you get through this. Our heartfelt condolences.

“ Mrs. Rednou will be missed by thousands. She was a gited pianist, teacher, and friend. She swill live on in all our hearts. She taught me 50 years ago, she shared her love of music with me which alloed me to pass on that love to my children and grandchildren. Love you and will always hold you in my heart.

“ Lois Rednour was the most sweetest and patient piano teacher in the world. I consider myself very lucky to have had her as my instructor and role model. I have kept all of my lesson books and sheet music from over the years with her. Although almost thirty years later, I can clearly remember her letting me pick colorful foil stars to decorate my recital music. If I played my recital music back to her particularly well, she'd let me select one of the fancier, large foil stars. It felt like the highest honor back then! She always made learning fun and was a pleasure to be around. She genuinely loved all of her students, and I'm sure many of us felt like she was an extension of our family. My heart breaks for her real family's loss, and they have my deepest condolences. I will always love and miss Lois Rednour, but am comforted knowing that the music in Heaven just became a little sweeter.

“Mrs. Rednour was my first piano teacher, and for three years, as an adult beginning student, she taught me not only to play it, but to love playing the "extras" as she called them. I still have all my sheet music that she frilled up with extra notes written in, audio cassettes that I recorded her playing the pieces I wanted to learn, and a record album that she recorded. She has always been my "she-ro." (That's a female hero.) I still play many of those extra frills as I play for my church each Sunday! May God's comforting arms wrap tightly around her family. I love you, Mrs. Rednour.
