“ The best sister ever. She was always there when I needed her. She made me open my mind, try things out of the comfort zone. We had so many fun times together and some hard ones, but there are so many memories. I had a dream last night and she walked in my door. Looking all healthy and beautiful and smiling. I know it's her way of letting me know that she's ok now!

“ About a month ago Lora called me at the family cottage. We talked about her fond memories of spending summer time at the lake. She so wanted John and Vinnie to see where she had such fun times. I would like to tell a little Lora story. As a teenager she decided one day she wanted to live with Aunt Janet. She moved her clothes and boom box in. On the first night I asked where she was going. She said out with friends. I said no, you have homework. Same thing the second, third and fourth nights. On the fifth day I came home from work and all of her things were at the front door. I asked where she was going. She said she was going back home because, "you are stricter than my parents." We laughed about it many times since. Will miss you, love Aunt Janet
