“ I send my condolence to your family. We all have lost our loved ones oneway or other and death is the most painful experience one can ever have because man was meant to live forever and therefore God has provided a ramson sacrifice Jesus Christ. By his blood we have a hope of reserrection and as such we will see all the dead come to life. Jehovah God says he has better plans for us. Acts 24:15 talks about the resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. Please read the scripture for comfort.

“ Dear Family, Mothers are so special; they are literally the point of origin for us all. They teach us what it means to love and be loved. Losing your mother creates a void in the heart that nothing and no one can ever fill. I pray that you will receive the comfort your hearts need and the strength to endure from Jehovah, the "God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation". (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) Please take care.

“ To The Entire Family - There are those of you I have not seen in many years and those I have never seen - but to all of you my thoughts and prayers are with you. Time will heal the pain of your loss but during that time you can draw strength in knowing that your mother, grandmother and great grandmother is now with God and he will let her suffer no longer - she is in GREAT hands now and will be well taken care of.

“ Aunt Kay - though it's been many years since I last saw you mom talked about you all of the time so I kept up with you through her. You will be missed by many who loved you dearly but hopefully they can draw strength from knowing you are in a better place and no longer suffering.

“ Kay, I am going to miss you more then I can say. You have been gone for two days and already I have thought of picking the phone and calling you,that will be no more. We have had our ups and downs, but when you think of it ,there have been more ups. I hpoee you knew always that we were sisters by birth but friends by choice. Who am I ever going to talk to again for an hour or two on the phone. You will be sorely missed. God has you.
