“ To family of Lorraine.

So sorry for your loss. I have so many great memories of Lorraine. Your sister Barbara and I were best friends since we met in Freshman year at St. Andrew. I spent many Saturday nights at the Zwiernikowski house. Lorraine in one bed and Barb and I shared the other. I know she will say hi for me when she sees Barb/ Love you all.

“ My dear friend Lorraine it's been a long wonderful friendship that I'll always remember the laughter and great stories we told on our car rides to the casino. We met back in the late seventies when we bowled together and really had a fun time. I could go on forever about how fantastic and fabulous friend you have been but let's just say you'll be missed so much! Love you always Lorraine! Sue&John

“ She didn't have much but was always willing to share what she had! She had a tough shell but was a real “softy” underneath! I have good memories of a lot of laughter!
