“ Dear Family, Mike and I were so saddened that we couldn't attend Aunt Louise's funeral. She meant an awful lot to both of us. One of my favorite things about my Aunt Louise was her laugh. It was one of those laugh's that made other people want to laugh along with. She was such and open and giving person all her life. A caretaker with a servant's spirit....caring for both of her parents years ago, and then our dear Grandma Newitt. She most certainly was one woman that her children will call her blessed. She raised a wonderful Christian family and was a good and faithful servant. Well done Aunt Louise!
My thoughts and prayers are now with you, Uncle John, Judy, Nancy, David & Paul and your families. I know you all know what a wonderful mother you had and will miss her dearly.
Knowing she is out of pain and having reunions with her folks and Grandpa & Grandma Newitt and other Christian friends that have gone before her, gives me peace. I love you all, Mariann
