“ My heart is broken. 💔 My dearest friend Luanne Has gained her wings. Right now, I have no words. Luanne and I lived together for many years, we met each other when we worked at Thunder bowl. Some of the best times of my life. She passed away on the same day as my dad. January 13th. Can't even find the words right now. I hate Cancer! The only comfort I can find right now is knowing your suffering is over. You now fly with the Angels. You are now with your Mom Shirley, sister Gail, brother Mark and Wayne. What a reunion. My condolences go to your family

“ To my dear Aunt LuAnne you were always the one who had an open ear to listen. We have had a lot of laughs together. You fought the fight so well. Your heart was truly pure and non judgemental. So kind, loving and giving. So many people loved you and your dear Tyler always by your side. Blessed to have you as one of my aunts that had an open heart. Peace be with you and may you rest your soul.

“ I was so happy to get a matching tattoo with you! And even better it was your first tattoo at 63! I love you always, and will forever cherish all of the amazing years we had together. You were truly one of a kind, the world needed more people like you. This heartbreak I am feeling might not ever go away. You touched lives daily. I will miss your life talks and advice you gave me. ❤️ But most of all I will miss you. Forever in my heart. Love always, Savanna.

“ My sweet Aunt Lu... you were one of the good ones... always so nice, nonjudgmental, ready for a good time & a great listener. The first to tell me “don’t let that shit bother you.” You’d always call to sing me happy birthday & wouldn’t let me talk until you finished. You, Aunt Pam & my mom are a trio that is irreplaceable. With you 3 together there was always a good time to be had and a room full of love. I can’t imagine how many laughs there will be between you, Uncle Mark, Uncle Wayne & my mom. You are missed and loved by so many. You’ll always be the cool aunt.
I love you
Jamie
