“ Lucille was a force to be reckoned with. She ran her home like a fine tuned instrument. I don't remember seeing her anywhere else but the kitchen, except when she was showing off her 50 year old philodendron, which as I recall, took over much of the living room. After her Susan and I were grown, and getting into much less trouble, she softened into the sweetest most lovable human with the best warm hugs. I loved her like a mom because her Susan, was and is my very best friend in the whole entire universe and Lucille brought her into this world. She is a legend as far as I'm concerned and I will remember her for the rest of my life. All my heartfelt condolences to the family. I hope your memories come to comfort you endlessly. A life well lived, Lucille. You did good. <3

Such a lovely woman. I'm blessed to have known her and laugh with her and share a few moments together. She had a beautiful sense of humor. Always full of joy. Haven't seen her in quite a while and she was resting in a nursing home and finally took a turn. 99 years old is a good age to live. May she rest for every piecefully in that beautiful place. Bless all of her family and friends. May you find comfort and knowing that she is with her god and whatever way she believed

As a kid, I spent a lot of time at the Broxholms, as Susan was my dearest friend. Lucille was the commander in chief - no question about that! I remember her warmth, wit, humor and decisiveness. She seemed always busy... a blur. What an amazing woman to have as a mom and such a wonderful family! Lots of love to all of you!
