

Lucinda "Lucy" Barnett

October 17, 2006

Barnett, Lucinda "Lucy", entered eternal life October 17, 2006. Beloved wife of the late Edwin J. Loving mother of Lucille (John) Grable, and Robert E. (Sherri). Also survived by 5 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren. Funeral Friday 10:30 AM at Vermeulen Funeral Home, 46401 West Ann Arbor Road (between Sheldon and Beck) Plymouth. Visitation Thursday 3-9 PM. Interment Parkview Cemetery in Livonia.

A 20 year Plymouth resident, Lucy was born 1907 in Glasgow, Scotland, where she was employed as a baker. She and her husband Edwin came to Detroit in the late 1920's, later settling in Dearborn Heights, where they lived until their 1985 move to Plymouth. They were long-time members of Calvary Baptist Church in Canton. Later in life Lucy was active in the Bradbury Park Homes in Plymouth, and with the Tonquish Seniors groups. She was a wife and homemaker, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother for 76 years. Along with her baking she enjoyed reading and crocheting. She was always active, and was an avid camper, and enjoyed swimming and walking. Lucy left a strong legacy of "love in action" for the Barnett clan that will long carry on. She was a loving role model for her family, and was a friend of many. She will be missed. Memorial contributions may be made to the Karmanos Cancer Foundation, 4100 John R, Detroit MI 48201; or to Angela Hospice, 14100 Newburgh Road, Livonia MI 48154. “ When I joined the Freeland "clan" in the 1970s Aunt Lucy was one of the most memorable and enjoyable. She was always so friendly and cheerful. Although it took me years to know who was who, Aunt Lucy was a constant to depend on. I'm sorry I will be unable to attend the visitation or funeral but know that she will be missed by everyone who knew her. She was a great lady.
