“ Growing up, I was fortunate enough to live next door to Mario and Gina. Almost immediately, they became another set of grandparents to me and my brothers. They always welcomed my family into their home for pizza dinners. To this day, I remember those dinners when we make pizza on Friday nights. When I moved out of state, I felt comfort in knowing that my parents still had "family" close by.

When I started a family of my own, my boys quickly began to see Mario and Gina as grandparents figures, just as I did as a kid, a gift I was always cherish.

Love always,
Janet

“ I was lucky enough to have so many good memories in Michigan with Grandma Gina. You and Mario welcomed me into your home with open arms and I always felt loved. I will cherish the times we cooked together, made strawberry daqueries and cakes. You even taught me how to make crepes! I wish I could recreate your food for Ryan but my cooking just isn't as good. We shared so many great talks on the couch and out on the swing by the lake. Remembering stories you used to tell me leave me with a smile on my face as I can still hear your voice and your laugh. You made a lasting impact on my life. We are all so lucky to know you. Thank you for loving me.

“ I wouldn't be the person I am today if it weren't for her, she was like a second mother to me. She taught me how to cook, clean, garden, and many other things. She always took care of me and always gave without asking for anything back. I've never met anyone more selfless than her, and I hope that I can one day be remember as she will be. There was nothing but love and the willingness to help others from her.

Getting the call is something we can never expect, even if we try to prepare ourselves, nothing can prepare us enough. I am devastated that she had to leave because there were so many things I wanted her to be here for, like my graduation and my future wedding. She always gave me motivation and supported me in whatever I was doing. I will forever remember everything she taught me, everything she said to me, and all the good memories I have. Thank you for being you grandma, I love you and miss you, I wish you were here still.

“ I remember when my grandma used to make me say my prayers before bed even when I didn't want to. I remember her teaching me how to cook and doing the simple things in life that I have carried with me forever. My favorite thing in the world was visiting Michigan to see you and eat your pasta as soon as I walked in the door. I'm going to miss every single time we had together and I am going to cherish it for the rest of my life.

You are the most selfless person I have ever met in my life and I wish I was as good as you were. I wish I was as strong as you and I hope that my life experience mimics your great life grandma. I am completely broken inside. I am going to miss you in every way I could possibly imagine. I will also take with me all the best times we had and all the lessons you taught me. I absolutely unequivocally love you more than I could have ever told you for you to understand. You meant the world to me and I will be sad forever

I love you,

Your grandson (Ryan)

“Gina was an AWESOME AND LOVING grandma to my son! She was an AWESOME and LOVING mother in law to me, even when I was not married to her daughter any longer. She told me that I would always be her son and always welcome in her home. She always lived up to that promise when I seen her in subsequent years. I will miss you Gina! Thank you for your love to me and my son, Ryan.
