“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by Jehovah God, that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ Dear Mitch & Lauren, It is with sadness that I write this email. I was so happy when Linda told me she had made a reconnection with some dear people from our past. Then she tried to make connections to go and visit her again and was told she no longer was there. There is not much I can say other than we loved Sister Mitchell and she has run her race and now reunited with your dad. The Lord will see you both through these difficult days and months. I truly believe we will be seeing all our loved ones in a very short time. The Lord will be returning. Much love and prayers to both of you. Vi Poland

“ My feeling of a deep sense of loss at her passing cannot compare with that which each member of her family are sharing. My heart and prayers are with each of you How I appreciated the telephone conversations we shared with one another over the years. In retrospect, now they seem all to few. Yet, it was as Lydia would say, "Allen, let's not forget to keep in touch." And so, it has been. But I shall feel that loss. I remember on of the first of such telephone conversations. It followed hard upon the loss of her husband, my brother Irving. Apparently my voice sounded not unlike that of his. For that reason, her request was for me to keep talking. Evidently the simple sound of voice brought a measure of comfort to her. Now, however, he whom she loved so deeply, and she are reunited in the presence of our blessed Lord and Savior.

“ I am sorry that we met in such circumstances, but the limited time that we shared at Vermeulen yesterday, made it clear what a quality person Lydia was. Our condolences, thoughts and prayers go from our family to yours. The Tell Family

“ I have been privileged to have known Lydia and grateful for all she had done. Decisions she made years and years ago have touched lives that now have started entire ministries, structured churches, and have changed men and women to become powerful people of God. Her love and dedication to the Lord, her family, and friends have been instrumental in my life and the lives of others around me. I will miss Lydia for now, but am looking forward to seeing her in the future. To the family left behind I want you to know I am glad of the legacy she leaves behind. I am so blessed to have many of you in my life today. I love you all. Together for souls, P. Shane Fritz

“ To the family of Lydia especially my friend Dee. My sincere sympathies are with you. Living in the Grand Haven area for the past 11 years, I haven't seen Lydia in a long time but remember her fondly. She must be so joyful being with her dear husband and her loving Lord. To see Jesus face to face, what a happy day.

“ We're sorry for your loss. You are all in our heartfelt prayers. Lydia was a very dear special saint of God. She had such a warm heart and smile. Eventhough she would be going through things she still kept her interest in others. When she asked how you were, she actually cared enough to want a truthful answer. She listened, and responded in such a caring way. And she would be faithful to pray for you. She will be greatly missed and remembered. Love & prayers, Craig & Vic Tucker
