“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Lynn will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Lynn again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Lynn seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. I met Lynn and did water aerobics with her for several years at the Summit. She was always the fun one in the class! She made us work hard too! Her kindness was so evident as she remembered each of our birthdays with a homemade stamped card. She was a loving special friend to work out with. Will keep your family in my prayers.

“ Dave and Family, I just heard of Lynn's passing. Although I have such a heavy heart, I remember being together when our kids were so little with joy. We even shared a wedding month. Dave, you and Lynn treated me as family from the day I met you both and I have always remembered that. May God give you all peace.

“ Mrs. Hall was such a good friend to our family for as long as I can remember. Her hand-made holiday and occasion cards were such a nice thing to find in the mailbox, and they were just one way she showed how much she cared about her friends and family. She will be missed, but her last few weeks were full of celebration and memories with family and friends, and that is a blessing.

“ Lynn was the first Mercy mom I met, summer of '07. We shared 4 years, not only on the bleachers of field hockey and softball, but also numerous Mercy events that involved our girls. She was such a proud mother and an amazing friend. I will miss seeing her home-made cards in my mailbox. My heart is heavy for Dave, Amanda, Lisa and Kristina...you are in my thoughts and prayers.
