“ Tom and Family, Rita and I send our heartfelt condolences and deepest sympathies. Lynne was a dear friend as well as a valued co-worker. I was privileged to have hired her for GTE in 1973 and to have been able see her grow and learn various skills and positions through her long career. Rita was able to share and enjoy the arrival and early childhood of Tommy as well. She will be deeply missed by all. Rest in Peace Lynne

“ Tom & Tommie-Shocked & Saddened by your loss. The first time I met Lynne, she was pregnant w/ Tommie. We flew to Huntsville, AL to Intergraph. Worked with her in Muskegon on many different items. Always enjoyed working with her, you too, Tom. Many pleasant memories. Tommie & my son Courtney are the same age. Courtney's w/ the Army in Europe. Condolences from here in Fort Wayne. Blessings to you all!

“ Tom, so shocked and sorry to hear of Lynne's passing. So many memories... "twofers" at PJ's after work; filling Satch's gas mask with cigarette butts; lots golf and laughs. I've learned the pain you feel now, will fade into happy memories. Praying for you and Tommy. Carol McGowan
