

Mabel Pearl Berry

October 26, 1932 - July 23, 2022

Westland, MI - Mabel Pearl Berry 89 passed away peacefully Saturday at Serine House adult foster care in Plymouth MI

Mabel was born October 26, 1932, in Bismarck North Dakota, the Daughter of Everett and Juanita Akers. Mabel lived there for her first four years until a tragedy took her dad. Her mother packed up Mabel, Irene, and her baby brother Roy and moved back to Belleville MI. They lived in one bedroom at her mother's house. She always talked fondly about those times. She was very popular because of her sweet personality and became the Homecoming queen of Belleville High 1949. She worked her way into Michigan State Normal College later to be called (Eastern Michigan University) where she met the love of her life, Don Berry. They got married during Christmas break in 1953. They bought a house in Westland in 1955 where they raised 4 children and stayed until she had to move to adult foster care this January after a fall. Anyone that ever met Mom would say she is a sweet woman. She loved her family and would do anything for them without asking for anything in return. She had a way of making you feel like you were the best person in the world. Mom made holidays special! She would always be the first to sign up to be a room mother for school or den mother for cub scouts or girl scouts. Mom never missed one of our sporting events. Dad started liking the U of M football games and she went for 25 years but never went into the stadium. She loved to paint and read books. She loved her family and we loved her! Heaven got a new angel.

She was preceded in death by her husband Don Berry, father Everett Akers mother Juanita Akers, sister Irene Warner, baby brother Roy Akers, daughter Kathrine Hammons, grandson Andrew Berry, and great-grandson Fredrick Hawkins.

Mabel is survived by Michael (Julie) Berry, Ruby (Chris) Williams, Dylan, and Luka. “ I was sorry to hear of Aunt Mabel's passing. I will remember her with a smile on her face and, whenever possible, a child in her lap. Just recently going through my mother's things, I found a handwritten recipe for "Mabel's 3 Bean Salad", an exchange between 2 young mothers that ended up many years later with a no longer-young daughter and niece. A small, mundane connection passed through time, distance, and space that brings them both instantly to mind. I see them clearly in a photograph of a Berry family picnic, smiles and watermelon all around. My sympathies to all her nearest and dearest, they are the reminders of a life well lived

“ We will never forget the great times we had up at the cottage snowmobiling. Especially when we went over St. Valentines Day because the guys had to make dinner AND clean up! So much fun with Mabel & Don over soooo many years. I still have all of the Christmas cards Mable painted. I put them out every year for everyone to enjoy. Beautiful just like Mabel was. She will definitely be missed by everyone that was fortunate enough to be her friend.

“ One of my favorite memories of Mom is being at the cottage in Gaylord and spending time talking over coffee with Mabel before anyone woke up. I think I was interrupting her from her book, but she didn't seem to mind. Then would hear the kids waking and coming down the stairs with their footie pajamas on ready to get a hug from grandma.

Mom was a great artist, she went to school to be a Art Teacher. I shared some of her pictures. She even passed on her skill to her grand daughters Natalie, Courtney and Olivia who all have degrees in art.

We always looked forward to her Holiday cards. She would have made a great art teacher as she was a great artist and very good with young people.
