“ Mabel was such a wonderful Christian woman! She always had a big smile on her face and always a positive word to say! If you needed someone to pray for you she was the one to go to . She was more than willing to pray, She will be missed. I am sure she is totally enjoying Heaven ! What a reunion! We that know Christ as our personal Savior will some day see her again and all our loved ones that have gone on before us . What a Day that will be!!!

“ Jerry, So sorry to hear of your Moms passing. She was a wonderful Lady and will be missed by many. I hadn't seen her in several years but will always remember the many nights spent over at your house when we were younger. We both know she is in the presence of her Lord now and may this ease the pain and sorrow that her passing brings.

“ Dear Jerry & Cindy, Sincere condolences for your loss of your Mom. I remember how thoughtful your Mom was to my mother Rose when she was in the senior home. She would come and visit her often and if my Mom was not in her room she would leave a note under her door. My mother appreciated her visits. I am sure your Mom made a lot of people feel good with her unexpected visits and will be truly missed by all. Love, Joe & Kathy
