“ I can't even begin to express how Sad I am and how much I already miss this wonderful woman!! I was truly so Blessed to have her for a Great Aunt! She was so Special to me & I Loved her very much & I will never forget her or our Morning talks. I will always treasure the time we spent talking on the phone, I loved listening to her tell me stories about my Granny Baker (her sister) and stories from Days gone by. I will forever cherish & keep those stories pressed between the pages of my mind. Aunt Mable was such an inspiration to me, as I'm sure she was to all that knew & loved her. She was such a positive person & I will forever miss hearing her laugh & her sweet voice saying, "Hi Connie Honey, How are you?"...I will especially remember her everytime I see a hummingbird visit my feeder, an Oriole eating an Orange in my Garden or the Gold finches flocking to my feeders. She sure loved her birds & so do I. She often told me how she would love to come to Tn to visit me & walk thru my Garden with me and see my Flowers and I regret that she never got to, but Now she will be right there with me everytime I'm in my Garden, as she will forever be in my heart! I love you Aunt Mable your Great Niece, Connie (Ellis Ann's Daughter)

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Mabel will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Mabel again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Mabel seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)
