“ Memories, oh so many. I ran away from home at the age of 8, angry with my mom because she wouldn't let me have my way. I was far too scared to go too far, so I hid behind the chimney in the back of Dorothy's house, who lived right behind my house. Now, I knew I had been spotted, and my 2nd. mom came out to me with a sandwich and something to drink, sat and listened to my broken hearted story and convinced me that my mom really did love me and based her "no" decision out of her love for me. I finally seen the right of what was said and I went home.

Fast forward: As a teenager, working at Sears I had a breakdown from stress at my family home due to my sister and her doings. I was being used as the monkey in the middle and it finally got to me. Unable to work and NOT wanting to go home, I called my friends mom, and she and her son Timmy came and got me from work. We talked and talked, I poured my hurt and sadness out, My 2nd. mom LISTENED, she UNDERSTOOD me, she talked to me and helped me to see ALL the sides to what was happening. I don't know if she ever knew just how much I needed her then, but she did not fail me.

Again, at the time of my dad's failing health, he knew there was Jesus, but he simply wasn't sure of where he fit into God's plan for his eternity. We all have sinned, and I guess dad felt he may have passed his "limit" for sins allowed, he was scared. But he KNEW who could make him understand, he KNEW the strong faith of this beautiful lady, he talked to her on the phone and she gave him reassurance and peace that only comes from knowing our Lord and Savior. Daddy died a few days later.

So many more memories made from this beautiful, heaven sent angel, thank you for being there for me and my family. You will indeed be missed here on earth,, but we will see each other again when the time comes.

“ What an amazing lady! She sets the bar high for those who followed behind her. Always classy with a dash of sassy, Grammie May was certainly one who won our hearts.

So many fun memories of her visits here to see her kids and grandkids here in Oklahoma. Our church family came to know and love her like she was one of our own family members- our absolute favorite Grandma. She was loved by every age group and found a special place even in the hearts of our teens.

My heart is happy for her reunion with Papa George and her boys; however we feel the hollow pangs of her absence here already. She will be so missed even from her distant friends down south.

We love you, Grammie May. Thank you for being such a great example on many levels. You are forever a cherished icon of poise and dignity, the perfect mix of spunk and virtue. Miss you already and grateful for the promise it's not the last time we'll see you.
