“ On January 1, 2016, my sister, Kathy, and I just found out about Marcello's death. He was a good man. My father loves him. No matter how old our loved ones are, it is always too soon for them to leave us. Please know if we had known about his passing, we would have been there to give our condolences to his wonderful family. Susan Rock

One of my greatest blessings in life was knowing this man and his family. Worked for him for 25 years, a wonderful employer, deeply respected his expertise and hard work. My prayer is that HE be granted eternal rest with The Heavenly Father and those loved ones who has preceded him. Until we meet again..and we will...R.I.P.

Family Man, business man and true Pillar of the family and community. I can only imagine the choir of Angels singing in Heaven as this great man entered into his final resting place with our Lord. It has been a honor and privilege to know and work for Mr. Scappaticci and his family. My condolences to the entire Scappaticci family.

It was an honor to know and work with Marcello. One of the most honest ,hardest working men you will ever meet. The Plymouth community has lost a true pillar. As he built many pillars. He leaves behind a legacy. I will miss his stories of the old country. My prayers are with his family
