“ Dear Marty, Such high adventure I have shared with you and Marcia. She was always ready for anything, whether it was trying out street food in Beijing or taking on new challenges to help with the growth of our Michigan Tai Chi Center. I will miss my dear tai chi sister and her indomitable spirit. With great love and affection, Susan

“ To everyone who loved Marcia, I extend my deepest sympathy. I am shocked and deeply saddened by how quickly the final battle turned for this brave warrior. For Aunt Mart in particular, there's so little I can say that will help right now. There may be times when you'll think that you should have done or said something more. Let it go. Marcia knows that you did the very best you could, that you were the most important person in her life, and she loved you for being there with her every step of the way. I think what she would want you to do now, is to find the peace and serenity that you knew when you shared the best of times with her. I hope you can do that soon. Your loving nephew, Gregory.

“ Marcia was a very special friend and mentor and I benefitted from her wisdom, kindness and generosity of spirit. She enjoyed life and her fun loving ways made her a joy to be around. Her positive spirit and sense of humor will be sorely missed. Our memories of her will always keep her alive in our hearts. Love to you, Marty. You were the center of her life. Take care.
