Happy Birthday, Mom. It is so hard to imagine that it's been 10 years without you. Not one day has passed that I don't think about you. What I miss, maybe the most, is your sense of humor. It cannot and never will be matched. I still share some of my favorites with friends (even strangers in the store), and they always laugh, as well! Miss you, Mom. I love you! Patti

“ Patti, Mike, and Bill, The love your mother had for you may, only possibly, be eclipsed by the love you had for her. All of you have been blessed by the love you shared. I will always remember her gentle strength, unending kindness, and fantastic sense of humor. Along with that great fried cauliflower! I pray for your strength and comfort knowing she is in God's love now, whole and strong again, and void of all pain. May your temporary separation be filled with all the wonderful memories you hold.

“ Grandma,
You have gone through more in your life than I ever thought was possible. It always amazed me when you would wake up the next morning with not only a smile on YOUR face, but also putting a smile on everyone elses. I have never met anyone with such a positive attitude, and I will always admire you for that. I wish so badly that I could have been with you on your last few days, but I will always have the wonderful memories of our many visits. I have no doubt you will watch over all of us just as you always did. I know I am speaking for everyone when I say we love and miss you very much.

Love, Shannon and Caylee

“Mom, My eternal best friend. Being in your presence, everything was right with the world. Our love was so strong that we often said we loved too much. Your unbelievable courage, strength and optimism never ceased to amaze me and all who knew and came to know you. I will always hold in my heart the lifetime of laughter that we shared no matter the circumstance. Your gentle, sweet and loving nature will always be with me. Although I miss you beyond measure, I find comfort in knowing that peace is yours now and forever. Thank you for being my everything, Mom. I love you so very much! Love, Pollars

“ Dear Family: I'm sorry for your loss. Margie and I were children together and graduated high school the same year - 1954. We were neighbors on Second St - Wayne and our parents were good friends too. Makes me wonder if her special humor kept her going. I would suspect so. You must remember the fun and good times past and take care. Sincerely, Betty

“ Dear Pat and Family, It is so hard to have a loved one end their journey here on earth, but to see them suffer so much is harder and a blessing they begin a new journey to eternal life. May you all be blessed with strength as you go through the grieving stages. In memory of your dear sister Margie ^j^ "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." 2 Timothy 4:7 And for all of you: "What we once enjoyed and deeply loved we can never lose, for all that we love deeply becomes a part of us." ~Helen Keller~ Peace be with all of you as it now is with your beloved sister, mother, grandmother.
