December 6, 1928 - November 12, 2015

Margaret E. Taliaferro age 86, passed away November 12th, 2015, at Hospice of Citrus County, Florida, formerly of Livonia, Michigan. Beloved wife of the late Francis Gerald Taliaferro. Maggie is survived by her sons Todd and Walter Andrew, and daughter-in-laws Maureen and Katherine and four grandchildren Paige, Matthew, Payton and Faith. She will be loved and missed by all those her survive her. Visitation Sunday 1 PM until the 4 PM Funeral Service at Vermeulen-Sajewski Funeral Home, 46401 W. Ann Arbor Road, Plymouth (Between Sheldon and Beck). There will be a private Interment at Ft. Custer National Cemetery. Margaret (Maggie) Taliaferro was born December 6th, 1928, in Mexico, Mo., to Lonnie and Virginal Hall. Maggie was a beloved mother and wife. She married her high school sweetheart Francis G. Taliaferro at age 21 and had two boys Todd and Walter Andrew. She loved her boys and Gerry more than life. She especially loved watching her sons excel in football. In fact, her favorite pastime was watching her favorite sports teams. She loved her Tampa Bay Rays and the Tampa Bay Buckineers. Beyond being an exceptional wife and mother, Maggie T. was an extremely intelligent woman, shown by her teachers allowing her to skip the 4th grade. She soon realized her love and passion for science that lead her to college where she graduated with bachelor's degree in medical technology in an age when women were not encouraged to pursue higher education. Her talents lead her to manage a medical lab at Garden City medical center where she excelled to the top of her field. She then became a founding member of the Schoolcraft College

Med Tech 2 year program that is still thriving at SchoolCraft College 40 years later. To share a memory, please use the Share a Memory Tab on this web page.
