“ My last visit with Aunt Marge was quite a few years ago where was on my way home from Taylor, going by her neighborhood and called her. She was so happy to hear from me. I met her in Plymouth at her place, and she and I had a dinner at a fave place suggested. She wouldn't let me pay. We had such a nice time and talked quite a while. I've loved her bright personality and sense of humor, and her energy. I'll always keep her close in my heart! I remember growing up and loving whenever we could see her and Uncle Joe and all our cousins! God is with her and all your beautiful family during this sad time. I know she is smiling at each and everyone, full of love.

I never once thought of Marge as my mother-in-law. She ALWAYS treated me like a mother would treat a son. To me, she was and always will be "MOM." This wonderful lady was full of grace with a touch of spunk. Energy flowed through her veins, leaving her quick with the wit and tongue who could make you laugh when you least expected. Her trips to Austin were a blessing. I loved every minute Mom was with us because we all enjoyed each other's company! I miss you, but I'm thrilled you're in heaven with Joe and the rest of your family. Mom, I love you from the depths of my soul. -- Andy, the Polack

“My dear mother-in-law (mom) was a wonderful, sweet and caring lady who was also my great friend. I feel so honored and privileged to have spent so many years with her which has provided me with memories that I will always cherish. She was an important part of my life and I will dearly miss her, but I know she is in the loving arms of her beloved husband, Joe, who I also miss immensely. "I Loved Her So Much!"

“My mom meant the world to me. She was not only loving and caring to her family but to everyone she met. Such a kind and gentle soul. I will be forever grateful for all the wonderful times we have shared throughout the years. I am very sad not to be with her and have our daily visits but I know she is now with my Dad and others she has loved.

Mom, I will always have you in my heart.

Your loving daughter, Karen

“ I am blessed with a lifetime of happy memories of my Grandma. My favorite memory is how she made me feel so loved. As a child, she would play games with us and I loved spending time at the lake with her. As an adult, I enjoyed talking to her for hours about life. She was lovingly called our “cookie” grandma by my kids because they could count on getting a sweet treat every time we stopped by. We had a great time when she traveled to Texas with her even though so many things went wrong. I loved her laughter and her sweet grandma kisses. I admired her for her strength and compassion. I miss her but I am happy that she is at peace and with my Grandpa again. Thank you Grandma for making me feel special. I love you so much!

“Grandma, the sound of your laughter is something that will always stay with me. You were always pulling little pranks at family parties (or encourage us younger kids to carry out your pranks). I am grateful to have had so many wonderful memories with you.

I remember sleeping over at my grandparents house (Pat & Jack Sluka). The four of us would always play a board game, usually upwards or scrabble. Regardless of the game, you would always find some minor way to cheat at it. Whenever Grandpa Sluka called you out on it, you would deny it of course. The exchanges between the two of you always had me laughing.

Whenever I go on an airplane and go through TSA, I always think of you and our family trip to visit Aunt Bubbles (Bonnie) and Uncle Barney (Andy) in Texas. The flight down there was eventful, and we missed our connecting flight in Memphis so we had to stay the night in this tiny hotel room. There was some sort of conference going on in town so we were only able to get one room with a king size bed for the 6 of us. You insisted on sleeping in the chair despite all of our protests. We didn't have any luggage so we had to sleep in the clothes we were wearing. The next morning, we returned to the airport to catch our connecting flight to Texas. When we went through TSA, they made you take your shoes off. You refused because you had a tiny little hole in the bottom of your stocking and didn't want them to see it. After the agent told you you wouldn't be able to get to the plane until you took your shoes off, you complied. However, as you went through the metal detector went off so you had to be padded down/wand. The entire time you were crying laughing at how ridiculous the entire situation was. You even told the agent "I'm over 80 years old, what on earth do you think I'm going to do bad?"

I have so many wonderful and cherished memories with you, all of them including your laughter. Thank you for teaching me the power of laughter and to always look for the ridiculousness in any situation. I know you're in heaven now with Jaja. Please give him a big hug and kiss from all of us.

We love you so much, Grandma. You will forever be on our minds and in our hearts.

“ We were all so blessed to call her Mom. She was such a kind, loving and strong woman. She was fun and loved a good joke or to pull off a prank! She was such a great lady and taught us all many important life lessons. The older we get, the more we become our Mom. But in her case, she will always be one of a kind. Special. We could only hope to be half the woman that she was. I know she is in Heaven and whole again. She greatly deserves this reward. I know you are making it ready for when we join you. Till that day comes, know that you will be in my heart every minute of every day. Thank you for all the love. God Bless.

“ Dear Mom. God gave me so many years with you, how do I begin to thank you. You nourished me, taught me right from wrong, how to forgive others and above all to love each other. You were always there for me and my family no matter what the circumstances were. We had many adventures together and I am thankful for all the memories I will cherish all the days of my life. Thank you for giving me life, thank you for my Christian upbringing which helps me cope with the grief of losing you. You are with God now and we will meet again. I love you more. Pat

“ Dear Mom you gave me so much love and now I have all those wonderful memories to share with my children and grandchildren. I will miss you every day and I know you will be watching over all of us. The memories I hold dear is your love, kindness and generosity. You encouraged and supported me every step of the way. When no one believed you were there to hold me close and give me encouragement and push me to work hard to achieve my goals. I will always remember the walks we took and how much you loved to be outdoors. Listening to music in the park and snacking on ice cream. Our visits together every day were special. I will miss holding your hand and being with you. As you take this journey I will hold you close in my heart and prayers. Love Betty

I will always remember visiting and having a few laughs with Mrs. Roza when she lived in Plymouth. She was a kind, caring individual who will be greatly missed. I know firsthand how difficult it is to lose a mom as I lost mine several years ago, and I miss her everyday. Hold on tightly to your friends and family because they will help you through these difficult times. Prayers and comforting thoughts are with all of you.
