“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Marian will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Marian again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Marian seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ I was Marian's first great grand daughter she brought smiles to everyone around her she always made you feel loved and welcomed. I have so many memories of her growing up she loved to tell stories and do anything to make you laugh. I will always love her and miss her very much. I love you Great Grandma..

“ May the Lord bless Marian ("Great Grandma") and take her into his wonderful kingdom, to watch over and guide the many she loved, as well as the many who truly loved her. Let peace, strength and healing find her loved ones in these tough times.
