“ I first met Marie and Ed back in 2016 when I moved into the same apartment building. Only God could have known at the time that a simple friendly hello and wave would lead to a decade long friendship that would become more like family.

Marie was like an aunt to me. Warm, loving, comforting, and fun. She was quick witted and could make me laugh no matter what.

I miss our daily phone calls, visits, and occasional dinners.

I am thankful for the time God blessed me with Marie.
