“ Marie, mother to our dear friend, Anna!! My remembrance of her, prior to her health issues in the last few years, was how happy she always was when she saw my husband, Jay, and I when we would go out to Tony and Anna's lake house!! She always had a big smile and hug for us!! She was a woman who loved her family and always enjoyed the many celebrations, get togethers and adventures shared with the family!! Anna and her sister, Roxanna, and Marie's caregivers, should be commended for the love, care and devotion to their Mother that was given to her during these past, extremely difficult years, during her illness. My heartfelt condolences to the family!! Marie, may you rest in peace!!

“ Marie was a beautiful mother and grandma
Our daughter Ally loved visiting after high school and religious youth group nights. She enjoyed their special time together and felt so welcome and loved.

They would share stories and do simple activities or have a meal.
She gave Ally a handmade crochet blanket for graduation and college

Her heart was full and she loved her grandchildren dearly.

We wish Roxanne, Jacqueline and Andre comfort and peace during this difficult time.

God bless you

La recuerdo siempre amable y una sonrisa al recibirnos en su casa cuando éramos estudiantes en Secundaria y Preparatoria . Cocinaba unas deliciosos panecitos (molletes) típicos de Saltillo.

Excelente mamá que formó dos grandes hijas: Anna Haydde y Roxana.

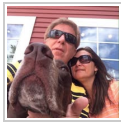

Felicidades por esa gran bendición de haber tenido esa hermosa mamá !!

Nuestro cariño y cálido abrazo uds y su familia.

EPD y que siga brillando siempre!!!
