“ I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of Mario. I lost touch with him a couple years ago. We met in Stuart, Fl at an open house 10 years ago and use to go to his condo for coffee with him and his wife Evelyn. I'm originally from Northville , Michigan so we always had a lot to talk about. Evelyn this is Jeff the Realtor...take care

“ Dearest Patena, Rita, and Elisabeth,

I share with you the sorrow of losing one of the greatest men I have ever known. My Godfather was one of the rocks of our childhood and adult life that can never be replaced or forgotten.

So many memorable times spent together for birthday parties, holiday celebrations, and just plain get togethers, will be cherished forever. Who can ever forget the winemaking and grappa that was a mainstay of our lives?

One of my fondest memories will always be the Detroit Red Wings hockey games my Patino took me to at the Olympia. He knew exactly where I should stand at the entrance to the locker room so that after pregame warmups, the team entered, and I could watch them. He knew trainer would slap down a hockey puck on the barricade, and I could walk off with this trophy.

Please know, dear family, that my prayers are with you today, and every day, as you mourn the life of your great husband, father, grandfather, and great grandfather!

*My love to you all...
Patino Michael*
