“ How would you feel if you knew that a reunion with your loved ones was possible right here on earth under the best of conditions?

Well, the Bible makes the promise: “Your dead ones Yes, Almighty God has not only the power but also the desire to resurrect persons whom he chooses. Jesus Christ himself said: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”—John 5:28, 29; Acts 24:15. Visit www.jw.org

“ *We were sorry to hear of Marjorie's passing. Had kept up with her by phone and mail for a number of years. Another of my cousins gone. May you find comfort in the thought that she is now with the Lord. Our thoughts are with you.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Marjorie will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Marjorie again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort.

“ Dear Harkness family I am very sorry for your lost. Losing someone no matter what the age is devastating. Some may feel that by todays standards she lived a good long life. Even the Bible says" that because of special mightiness our years are seventy,or eighty." It also goes on to say "and away we fly" meaning that we leave here to soon. In fact we we're never to die at all. (Genesis 2: 15-17) Fortunately Jehovah God through Jesus Christ's ransom sacrifice we have the possibility to come to life again.
